MEDICINAL.

"Good Night."

How few women know what it is to have a good night; a night of sound, restful sleep. They smile and say "good night" in cheery tones, but when the chamber door closes behind them, the smiling mask drops off, and shows the lines of suffering.

Other women have had the bad nights changed to good by the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. So may you. Ninety-eight times in every hundred it perfectly cures diseases of the delicate womanly organs. It builds up the nervous system, puts flesh on the body and color on the cheek.

"Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. C. N. Anderson, of Rockbridge Baths, Rockbridge Co., Va., "is a God-send to weak and sickly women, restoring health without subjecting their nerves to the shock of an examination. I was all run down in health--could not work but a short while without resting. Was so nervous at times that I could not even write; had a very poor appetite. I decided to write to Dr. Pierce and state my case. I received a favorable reply, and commenced taking the Favorite Prescription and 'Pellets.' Took six bottles of Favorite Prescription, and one vial of 'Pellets.' I can now work as well as I could before I was taken sick. I think Dr. Pierce's medicine is the best in the world for sick and nervous women."

Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are specially adapted to the use of delicate women. Easy to take, gentle in action.

GYPSY QUEEN DIVORCED.

King Giardioni Byrd and his wife, Queen Natalie, of the gypsy tribe camping near Morristown, N. J., were divorced last week according to the rites of the tribe. The King is about 40 years old and the Queen ten years his junior. He comes from the old country but she was born in America, her father being the gypsy king, John Welles, who died in Elizabeth two years ago. King Giardioni and Queen Natalie had been married for fifteen years.

This tribe of gypsies has been in camp in the Rockaway Valley, about a mile and a-half from Morristown, for the past month. The other day King Giardioni walked over to Morris Plains and purchased a keg of cider. He started to carry it to camp, but found it too heavy, so he transferred part of the load from his shoulder to his stomach and arrived at camp unsteadily on his legs. Queen Natalie raged and stormed. She kept it up for two days and then gave forth her ultimatum. She would be divorced. King Giardioni agreed and the tribe was called together.

The sacred marriage rod was brought out and placed on a cloth in the centre of a circle of gypsies. Then the property of the tribe was brought out piece by piece. Half of it was placed on one side of the rod and half on the other. The horses and wagons were drawn up to the same order. Then the Queen opened a book and gave the number of the page. The King did likewise and as he came nearest the centre of the rod he stepped over on the north side of the marriage rod. The Queen took her place among the goods on the south side of the rod. They stooped to the ground together picked up the rod, each holding an end, and after a moment's hesitation broke it in two. They were divorced.

Queen Natalie ordered her horses hitched up and her followers to assemble. Less than half an hour later she, with about half the tribe, moved westward. King Giardioni and his followers remained. They will stay there until the sun has risen seven times, when they will move to the north.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM.

The conference of educators, held in this city recently, dealt with a number of subjects of great interest.

There were present the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the principals of all the educational institutions of this city, as well as a number of subjects of great interest.

One of the most important proceedings of the conference was the adoption of an earnest protest against the proposed division of the school fund on the ratio of taxes paid by the two races. The conference expressed the view that such a policy would be utterly subversive of the principle upon which the public schools rest.

The conferees were of opinion that decided progress has been made in negro education, and that what should constitute the qualifications of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and of county and city superintendents should be defined by law.

Another important recommendation made was that the State Board of education shall consist of the Governor, Attorney-General, and the heads of the State Technological and Normal schools, and that the board shall elect the superintendent of public instruction and the various county and city superintendents. The conference was opposed to State uniformity of textbooks, preferring to leave that matter to city and county school boards, under certain conditions and restrictions. Protest was made against any proposition to exclude from the schools the children of those who have not paid the poll tax.

The conference favored providing out of local school funds the necessary expensive apparatus for instruction in drawing, sewing, cooking, wood-work, etc. The school fund, in the opinion of the conferees, should be distributed on the basis of the school population. These recommendations were compiled in a report, which was submitted to the education committee of the convention.—[Richmond Dispatch.

Kodol

Digests what you

Eat

Dyspepsia Cure

A powerful engine can't be run with a weak boiler; and you can't expect to keep up the wear and strain of an active life with a weak stomach. Our boilers, or rather our stomachs, can't be replaced, and we cannot stop the human machinery while making repairs. But when the stomach is unable to digest enough food to keep the body strong, we can use such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat, so that you can eat all the good food you want, without any distress after eating.

After forty years of suffering from indigestion, a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cured me. Amel Bell, Fredonia, Pa.

It can't help but do you good

Prepared by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The full bottle contains 24 times the 50c. size.

When you need a soothing and healing application for piles, sores and skin diseases, use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of counterfeits.

Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

A Minister's Good Work.

"I had a severe attack of bilious colic, got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called to another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him the next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said, 'No.' I went home and brought my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured. I think it the best medicine I have ever tried." For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.
